CONVICTS ESCAPE.

Thirteen Criminals Who Were Confined in California Penitentiary at Large.

THEY HOLD OFFICIALS AS HOSTAGE

Warden and Guards Were Severely Handled and One Was Killed Before They Were Overpowered.

Later a Battle Took Place Between a Posse and the Desperadoes in Which One Convict Was Killed and Another Wounded.

Folsom, Cal., July 28.—One of the most daring breaks in the annals of prison history of California occurred Monday morning from the state penitentiary here, when 13 convicts by a coup rushed their way to liberty, carrying with them as hostage the warden, his grandson, the captain of the guard, and two other guards from the entrance.

The escape was evidently the result of a well-planned combine and was made at the time when the convicts were assembled for work in the jute mill. A rush was made at a guard, who resisted and was so badly wounded that he died later.

The warden's clothing was slashed into shreds with a razor but the blade did not touch the flesh. Turnkey Cochran fought the convicts with a chair, raining blows on them right and left. Finally he was felled by a knife thrust in the back. Guard Cotter's abdomen was ripped wide open and he died Monday afternoon, while Palmer was nearly scalped. The floor of the office was covered with blood.

The officers were outnumbered and soon had been relieved of their arms. Then, using the officers as a shield, the convicts started for the armory post on the outskirts of the penitentiary grounds. They passed a Gatling gun on one of the walls, but the guards were afraid to turn it on the convicts. When the armory post was reached officers there attempted to interfere but were quickly overpowered. Then, after further arming themselves with rifles, knives, pistols and ammunition, they made a dash for the country, with several guards, the warden and the captain in tow.

Convicts Armed With Rifles.

Convicts, armed with rifles, marched one on either side of Warden Wilkinson, who was threatened with death if he made an attempt to escape. The officers were told that if any of the pursuers took the life of one of the convicts, the convicts would retaliate, life for life. At Mormon bridge, about a mile from the penitentiary, the warden, his grandson and Capt. Murphy were sent back.

Further on the convicts went to a farmer's house, seized his four-horse team and wagon, robbed the house of everything of value, took the farmer with them as a driver and headed for Bald mountain. Evidently it is their intention to reach Alabaster cave.

THE WARDEN'S STORY.

He Says It Was Hopeless to Put Up a Fight Against Such Odds.

Warden Wilkinson tell his experience as follows: "I went up to the prison, as is my custom, to see the convicts eat their breakfast. The captain of the guard called me into his office to wait for the prisoners to walk out from breakfast. We were sitting in the office looking out of a window when the line made its appearance. Suddenly several of the prisoners made a rush from the line with razors and knives drawn, and rushed into Capt. Murphy's office.

"They were joined by others. I judge there were about 15 in all. Blood began to flow. I saw it was hopeless to put up a fight against such odds. One of the convicts came up behind my back, reached over with a razor and tried to cut open my abdomen. You can see how my belt is split from end to end and how my clothing is hanging in shreds.

"The convicts secured me and Murphy and five or six other officers, whom they disarmed. They kept us and proceeded to the ward and out of it by the front gate toward the armory post. The Gatling guns in the station hill tops and along the prison walls might have been fired by the guards, but had they done so the officers as well as the prisoners would have been killed. As we neared the armory a guard came out and they seized him. They took the keys away from him, entered the armory and equipped themselves with all manner of weapons. They then started along the dusty road and crossed the prison ranch toward the Mormon bridge. After I had gone about a mile, they let me go. They also released Capt. Murphy and my grandson, Harry Wilkinson. The rest of the men they have taken along with them."

According to a report just received a fight between the escaped convicts and a posse has taken place near Pilot hill in which Fred Howard was killed and A. Scabio wounded. Both are convicts. The convicts are said to have scattered and to be making for the surrounding woods. A company of militia is on the way to Pilot hill and should now be near the scene of the fight.

Before the fight took place the convicts, who had picked up a number of citizens along the trail and compelled them to join their party, had plundered the general merchandise store at Pilot Hill, kept by S. Diehl.

STRUCK BY AN ICEBERG.

British Tank Steamer Baku Standard Damaged.

Philadelphia, July 28.—The British tank steamer Baku Standard, from Tyne, arrived here Monday with a hole in her bow as a result of a collision with an iceberg. The British tanker, Capt. Tucker, reports that as she was steaming slowly over the Grand Banks off New Foundland during a dense fog at 4 o'clock last Monday morning an iceberg about 200 feet high loomed up. The engines were reversed but before the steamer could be diverted from her course the bow struck the submerged portion of the iceberg. A small hole was stove in one of the forward compartments below the water line. The pumps were placed in operation and by this means the water was kept down.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

During the Last Quarter 827 Persons Were Killed and 11,481 Injured.

Washington, July 28.—The report of the interstate commerce commission on railroad accidents in the United States for the three months ending March 31 last, shows that during that quarter 300 persons were killed and 2,834 injured in train accidents. Other kinds of accidents, including those sustained by employees while at work and by passengers in getting on and off cars, make the aggregate casualties 827 killed and 11,481 injured. There were 1,650 collisions and 1,181 derailments, causing $2,491,065 damage to cars, engines and roadways.

THE CUP DEFENDER.

The Challenge Committee Has Selected the Reliance.

Newport, R. I., July 28.—After Monday's race between the Reliance, the Constitution and the Columbia, in which Reliance again demonstrated her superiority over the other two, the challenge committee of the New York Yacht club selected the Reliance as the defender of the Americas cup. It was decided to discontinue the trial races. Messrs. Morgan, of the Columbia, and Belmont, of the Constitution, were perfectly satisfied with the choice of the committee. They are both of the opinion that the Reliance is the fastest of the trio.

BLÁCKS ARMING THEMSELVES.

Serious Trouble Is Threatened Near Blue Ridge, Va.

Roanoke, Va., July 28.—Serious trouble is threatened between the whites and blacks near Blue Ridge. Several nights ago a Negro woman was whipped by a party of white men for insulting a lady during the absence of her husband. This angered the Negroes and they have been arming themselves. A telephone message Monday night says the whites are armed and considerable excitement exists.

STORM AT MINNEAPOLIS.

Wind, Lightning and Rain Caused a Heavy Loss.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 28.—Wind, lightning and rain Monday struck Minneapolis and the loss is many thousands of dollars. Several buildings were razed. Others were unroofed, some were struck by lightning. Telephone, telegraph and electric wires went down with the poles that suspended them and nearly all the street cars were tied up for two hours.

THE FAMOUS CASE.

The Curt Jett and Tom White Trial Opened at Cynthiana, Ky., Monday.

AN EFFORT TO SELECT A JURY MADE

Attachments to Be Issued to Breathitt County For the Absent Witnesses For Defense.

The People of Cynthiana Express Themselves as Satisfied That a Fair Trial Could Be Obtained—No Trouble Anticipated.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 28.—The first day of the famous trial of Curt Jett and Tom White for the murder of Jas. B. Marcum was over Monday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock. Many witnesses are in attendance at the trial and the city is unusually quiet. The 30 jurors were called Monday morning and 24 answered present, and of them six were excused. There are 18 to report Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock when court again convenes. For the prosecution is Commonwealth Attorney L. P. Fryer and County Attorney J. S. Webster, and they are assisted by A. F. Byrd, who was the attorney for the prosecution of this case a month ago in Breathitt county. For the defense Messrs. J. I. Blanton, Lafferty and King, of this city, and R. F. French, of Winchester, and James D. Black, of Barbourville, and B. R. Golden, of Barbourville, Ky.

Jett's mother sits close by him and watches the proceedings with great care and earnestness. Judge Osborne said he would draw the remaining of the jurors from the drum in the circuit clerk's office Tuesday when the present number was exhausted. It is thought that a jury can be easily obtained.

At the afternoon session the attorneys were slow about coming in and they did not arrive until 2:15, when an affidavit of Jett and White was filed saying that they could not try their case at this term of the court on account of absent witnesses which had been summoned and which were not present Monday at the calling of their names. The affidavit further stated that on account of the present inflamed condition of the public mind and on account of the presence of soldiers here they did not believe that a fair trial was obtainable. The prosecution then retired to consult and came in and objected to the filing of the affidavit and Judge Osborne permitted it to be filed and overruled same and ordered an attachment to issue at once to Breathitt county for the absent witnesses, saying that they could give bail for their forthwith appearance at the sum of $200.

There is no immediate signs of danger of a conflict and the people all express themselves as saying that a fair trial could be obtained here.

Col. Roger Williams stated Monday afternoon that the differences between him and Judge Osborne had been entirely healed over; that they were working together now in perfect harmony and understanding about the trial and the protection of the prisoners.

The soldiers are rather sore at Judge Osborne for the part he took in last Saturday's actions, but now they are feeling better. The judge wanted Col. Williams to bring the prisoners to the courthouse under the protection of the soldiers in civilian dress, but the colonel refused and they will escort them from jail to the courthouse door as they did in Jackson, Ky., when they were tried there.

Capt. J. B. Ewen, the main witness for the prosecution, in the Jett-White trial, returned to Cynthiana on the 4 p. m. train from Lexington. He was met at the train by Sergt. Swinford and two men and escorted to Camp Licking, where he will remain under protection of the guards until after he testifies in the case.

FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.

Wm. S. Barnes, Thoroughbred Breeder, Files a Deed of Trust.

Lexington, Ky., July 28.—William S. Barnes, master of Melbourne stock farm, and among the most prominent of Kentucky thoroughbred breeders, Monday filed a deed of trust to Gus Straus and Mrs. W. S. Barnes, for the benefit of creditors. Liabilities and assets are not stated, but the former are said to be about $45,000. Besides Melbourne place and a handsome city home, Barnes owns a large number of valuable houses. Among the stallions are Rainbow, St. Julian, Zingora and Prince of Monaco. The grantee states that it is believed that the sales of the horses will more than satisfy the liabilities. The cause of the move is Col. Barnes' continued bad health and a desire to close up his business immediately to the best advantage to himself and creditors.

FIGHTS IN BREATHITT COUNTY.

Two Men Were Killed and Two Others Were Wounded.

Jackson, Ky., July 28.—Life is cheap in Breathitt county, as two men killed and two wounded in one day will testify. On Long creek, 20 miles from Jackson, and close to the home of Sheriff Callahan, Govan Smith and John Hall fell out over a game of cards. Hall drew first and shot Smith twice through the breast. As Smith fell he shot Hall through the brain, causing instant death. Smith died in a few moments.

The other affair occurred on Hunting creek. John Stidham and Alexander Craft were drunk and quarreling. Stidham attacked Craft with a knife, and Craft responded with a revolver. Stidham was shot three times, but will probably recover. Craft was cut several times, but his wounds are said not to be dangerous.

Killed By Train.

CARDINAL GIBBONS

American Churchman Received a Cordial Welcome at Meeting of Congregation.

NEARLY ALL CARDINALS IN ROME

Angelo Di Pietro is Being Talked of as a Compromise Candidate For Next Pope.

No Hope is Held Out By the Prelates That the American Cardinal Has the Remotest Chance of Election.

Rome, July 28.—Almost all of the cardinals of the conclave have now arrived. Their time Monday was mainly occupied with a lengthy meeting of the congregation, which was notable for the cordiality with which Cardinal Gibbons was received. After the meeting the cardinals received numerous visitors at their residences. In well informed circles Cardinal Angelo Di Pietro, pro-datary of the late pope, is being talked of as a compromise candidate in the event that Cardinals Oreglia, Gotti, Rampolla or Vannutelli is unable to secure the necessary votes. Should Di Pietro be elected pope he would, it is said, be the representative of the Rampolla-Gotti faction and yet would be fairly acceptable to all.

Cardinal Michael Logue, archbishop of Armagh, who, with the exception of Cardinal Gibbons, will be the only English speaking cardinal in the conclave, arrived Monday from Ireland. He said he believed that the successor to Leo would be quickly chosen. In his case perhaps the hope is fathered to the thought as he said he did not look forward with a great degree of pleasure to being shut up in the vatican during the present hot weather. Speaking of Cardinal Gibbons, the Irish cardinal paid him a glowing tribute though, like all the prelates here, he held out no hope that the American cardinal had the remotest chance of election.

"Indeed," said Cardinal Logue, "I think Cardinal Gibbons would be a subject for commiseration if the selection should devolve upon him, for no American would care to spend the rest of his life confined within the precincts of the vatican."

The Irish cardinal expressed the opinion that the question of sending a note to the powers protesting against the treatment of the vatican by the Italian government should be left to the next pope.

The Glasgow Times likens Bill Beckner and Bill Owens to "a pair of skunks."

Whisky and pistols equip men and boys like those Lexington murderers for their devilish work.

It is stated on reliable authority that all the union laboring men in Louisville are against Belknap, the Republican nominee for Governor, the reason assigned being that the firm of which he is the controlling spirit pays less wages and works the men longer hours than any other corporation in this State. That may account for his being a millionaire.

"There's a heap of trouble" on Mr. Roosevelt's mind these days, and there's more a coming. Another scandal is brewing,—this time in the Supervising Architect's office. Charges have been preferred growing out of the awarding of the contract for the new $3,000,000 government building at Cleveland. The document sets forth that while the specifications for the Cleveland postoffice call for a four-story sandstone building the working plans show a four-story granite building, and that a six-story granite structure is really to be built.

The Commercial Convention of Kentucky that met at Louisville in the spring selected a committee of fifteen to devise ways and means to have the voters of the State ratify, at the polls in November next, an amendment to the Constitution permitting the cities and towns of the State to regulate municipal taxation. Judge Wall was appointed for the Ninth district, and attended the meeting at Louisville on Thursday. The committee prepared an address to the voters of the State at large, which will appear in the papers. The amendment is purely non-partisan and only concerns the welfare of our towns and cities, and is of vital interest to Maysville. Our City Council and Board of Trade should take hold of the question and impress it upon the voters.

CLASH WITH LABOR UNIONS.

The President has suddenly jammed into the labor unions of this country, and somebody is going to come out second best in a fight that will be on in furious fashion pretty soon. It seems that a man named Miller, an assistant foreman in the bookbinding department of the Government Printing Office, was expelled from his union for good and sufficient cause. As the unions have been entrenched in the Government Printing Office in recent times, they have insisted that only members of the union in good standing shall be employed there, and the consequence was that Miller was dismissed from his position. He immediately began a fight. He appealed to the Civil Service Commission and to the President. He has been sustained by both. The President practically says to the labor unions that they may expel any man they please, but they must work under him whether he is in good standing in the union or not. The man has been reinstated, and now it is up to the unions.

UP TO THE PEOPLE.

Aside from the boodling and rottenness that is coming out of the Government departments in Washington, the government of the District of Columbia is being shown up just now, and it is about the most ramshackle and flimsy affair, to be called the government of a great city, that any man ever heard of, declares a writer. A young clerk, whose salary was $1,400 a year, was allowed to steal about $75,000 in the past five years for the reason that his books were never checked. His employers saw this young man plunging at the races, buying an interest in all sorts of businesses, riding around in a "red devil" automobile, and playing the "high roller" generally, and yet they never checked his books. There is hardly a day goes by that something crooked, something rotten, or something loose does not turn up in the District of Columbia building. There seems to be a lust of loot, a riot of rapacity and a fiduciary fandango in the capital of the nation. Long lease of power hath made the Republicans money mad, and they are simply taking what they want and asking no odds. When the people tire of it they know how they can stop it. It is up to them.

I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a valuable and reliable remedy and this fact is substantiated by ample proof from their personal use. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Prompt Payment.

MAYSBLICK, Ky., July 28, 1903.

C. L. Rosenham, Esq., Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: I desire to thank you and the Western and Southern Life Insurance Company for the courtesy shown me and for the prompt payment on the policies 2549A and 2550A on the life of my wife in favor of my little daughter, Fannie Chinn Ruggles, and myself in the sum of $2,000.

I think you represent a first-class company as you know I now hold a $3,000 policy on my own life in your company.

M. A. RUGGLES.

At Carlisle, Reese, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, was out with some playmates when the little folks thought they would have a hanging, as they had heard so much about O'Brien and Whitney, the Lexington murderers. They selected Reese as their victim, procured a rope, tied it to a limb, lifted the little fellow up, put his head in the noose, drew it tight and let him swing. Logan Anderson, a carpenter, happened along in time to take the little fellow down just as he began to strangle.

on OXFORDS and SLIPPERS.

There is nothing on which a person loves to save money better than on footwear and at the same time be assured that they are getting the best standard of quality. We have prepared a sale with that thought in mind and present a collection of the very best, priced in every instance at much less than their actual worth. Quotations were given in previous issues of this paper. Don't confound these offerings with goods bought for all-the-year-round "bargain" events. These shoes are from our regular high grade stock, reductions are genuine and made to clear the shelves for Fall lines.
